

CB1000R

Dominating presence. Sports performance. Effortless control.

Lean, mean and muscular – and packing the punch of full-blooded litre-class Super Sports. That's the CB1000R. Its compact RR-derived engine delivers awesome power with an exciting focus on low to mid-range torque. And with Super RR Sports derived suspension and brakes, handling is everything you would want – quick and precise. The suspension is also fully adjustable so that you can fine-tune the ride feel to your personal preference.

Every component is engineered to perfection. Cutting-edge technology with precision engineering – matched only by the CB1000R's styling. This is an eye-catching bike with real attitude. A true performer that anyone can enjoy.
